Details of the abduction

Jace, Altine and Marvin Dubray Jr. were forcibly taken from a carnival in Rosebud, SD at approximately 10:00 pm on the night of August 25th, 2021 by their non-custodial father. Another child who was with them managed to get away in the early morning hours of August 26th and reported that the father was under the influence of alcohol and controlled substances and threatening to harm the remaining three children. They are believed to be traveling around south central South Dakota in the white Town and Country van with South Dakota plates.

The children are believed to be endangered.
